This leaves the Senate 16 Democrats, 15 Republicans, one Independent. In the House 21 continuances members who refused to recognize the constitutional house were admitted to the bar and made to apologize for contempt. There are still about 30 Republicans in contempt.

The Fifteen Hundred Grasshoppers.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The Inter-Ocean's St. Louis special says there has been a general observance of to-day throughout the State, as recommended by the Governor, as a day of fasting and prayer for deliverance from the grasshoppers. All business was suspended, and meetings held morning and evening in the churches here.

Still Coming In for Rations.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, April 27.—Nine Cheyenne warriors surrendered this morning. They are to be 13 lodges to follow them in a few days. This will make 20 lodges that have come in since the main body of Cheyennes went. It is reported by these Indians that 40 lodges of Cheyennes are moving toward the mouth of Tongue river to surrender there. Crazy Horse was at last accounts on this side of Belle Fourche, camping this way.

Letter from Red Cloud.

RED CLOUD, Neb., April 27.—Messengers arrive this morning from Red Cloud, bringing a letter signed by him, the purport of which is that Crazy Horse is across the South Cheyenne and will be here in eight days. His village consists of 240 lodges, the proportion of warriors being unusually large. The Sioux Indians now in the country between the Black Hills and Yellowstone river are about thirty lodges, which split off from the party that came in with Spotted Tail. They intend to make one more round-up of buffalo, and then go into some agency. Sitting Bull has gone north of the Yellowstone, and is variously reported to have from 200 to 500 lodges.

Forgery.

TROY, N. Y., April 27.—It has been discovered that S. A. Thayer has forged notes to the amount of $25,000, purporting to have been signed by Henry H. Carter.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Resident ex-Confederate soldiers here have formed a committee to communicate with Southerners in the city to secure their attendance at the graves of federal and Confederate dead on next decoration day.

VICKSBURG, April 27.—The annual parade of the fire department took place to-day. The officers and sailors of the United States steamer Plymouth participated.

Capt. Barret received Governor Stone on board the Plymouth. A salute of 17 guns was fired in honor of his visit. The governor and staff returned in a telegram to the Secretary of the Navy requesting that the Plymouth be permitted to remain until Monday.

Costly Gift from a Royal Mother.

Grand Duke Alexis has just received from his mother a magnificent bracelet. It has three very large diamonds of the purest water. The bracelet is worn by the grand duke on his left wrist, under his coat sleeve, and he will wear it there until the end of the war. He was accompanied by his mother's blessing and prayers for his preservation and safe return, and with the injunction to behave like a true Russian.

Rumors Concerning Russian Vessels, Etc.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The Sun prints the following conspicuously: Rumors were rife and well informed circles yesterday of certain suspicious movements of the Russian visitors now waiting, and of the probability of their speedy departure on an important mission. It is collected to be to stand off the coast of Delaware and capture steamships loading with arms and munitions of war for the Turkish government. It is also rumored that the iron steamships City of Tokio and City of Peking have been sold to the Russian government, and several Russian sailing vessels have been put under the American flag. Many of the Russians on the vessels here were in high spirits over the manifesto of the Czar, which was read on the decks of all the vessels at the Brooklyn navy yard yesterday. They are ready, it is said, and in ship shape aboard. The fleet is preparing to go to sea on short notice.

Reported Sale of Steamships to Russia.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Pacific Mail Company declines either to admit or deny the sale of the reported sale of some of their steamers to Russians. The stock of the company has advanced one-since opening, on the reported sale.

Russia on Republican Members.

The Times' Columbus special says the Republican Senator from Chester who was arrested to prevent him from being present at the reorganization, was liberated by Judge Mackey to-day on condition that he would resign his seat in the House. Twenty-one of the 55 Republicans were seated. Each one was required to apologize before taking the oath for having contumaciously refused to recognize the Wallace House. A few more will be admitted to-morrow. It was definitely determined in the Democratic caucus that 20 Republicans are to be excluded. Among those thus thrown out are 18 from Charleston who had an average majority of 6,500, the aggregate majority of delegations excluded is over 12,000. Those seated to-day were carefully selected from the most ignorant and inexperienced Republican delegations. Every white Republican was excluded. In some delegations part were admitted and part excluded, though all were elected on the same ticket. Not the slightest reason was given in any case by the report for such selections. It is openly avowed that it was done in order to exclude all leaders.

Two Republican judges are still upon the bench in the State. These are to be got rid of by a declaration that the election last year was void and that the whole number must be elected over again.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Reducing the Number of Officials.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Attorney General had a consultation to-day with several officers of the Department of Justice and examined the roll of U. Deputy Marshals, assistant U. S. Attorneys and others represented by marshals and attorneys with a view of reducing the number of assistants as far as possible

Not Yet Notified.

The State Department has not yet received any official notification from either the Russian or Turkish Minister of the declaration of war.

Going to See the Fight.

It is probable our government will send two or three officers abroad to observe the military operations between Russia and Turkey.

Indian and Military Affairs in the West.

Lieut. Gen. Sheridan arrived here to-day in company with Gen. Sherman. They had an interview with the President concerning Indian and military matters in the West.

Hon. John Smith, Commissioner of Indian affairs, met Generals Sherman and Sheridan at the War Department, and they had a long conversation as to the intended removal of Indians from Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agencies to new reservations in Dakota on the Missouri, where they can be provided for with more security and less expense. The location of new agencies and time of removal are yet to be determined upon. No final conclusion will be reached until after Sheridan shall have consulted Gen. Crook, who is expected to arrive at Chicago in a few days. The Sioux and other Indians to be removed number twelve thousand.

Austrian Minister to the United States.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Count Hoyas, Austrian Minister, to-day called upon Assistant Secretary of State, Seward, and accredited to him Chevalier Earnest Von Tavera as charge d'affairs. Count Hoyns will shortly return to Europe on leave of absence.

The Hot Springs Commission.

Ex-Senator Cragin caves to-day for Hot Springs, to meet ex-Gov. Stearns of Florida, and ex-Representative Coburn of Indiana, who form the commission to assess the value of the Hot Springs property and subdivide it into lots.

Decision in Regard to Swamp Lands.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Some months ago the General Land Office declined to certify lands to the State of California as swamp, or the reason that sundry pre-emption claims were on record covering them. Schurz on appeal has reversed this decision, and lays down the following new and very important rulings for the future guidance of the department. The swamp land act of 1850 was a grant in præsenti, and under it the State of California was entitled to all lands at that date actually swamp. The act of July, 1866, to quiet land titles made no new grant of such lands, but only quieted the titles to land which had been regarded by the State as swamp, although perhaps not actually swamp land. Consequently, the saving clause in favor of the pre-emption rights of 1866 does not apply to lands which were actually swamp, and all pre emption settlements on such lands conceded to be swamp are absolutely void, unless made prior to Sept. 28, 1850.

Gen. Ord's Forces.

Gen. Ord, who has his headquarters at San Antonio, Texas, has barely force enough to prevent raids by Mexican cattle thieves, and will not attempt to reinstate President Lerdo.

District Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, April. 27.—A petition is being signed asking the President to appoint only residents of the district as district commissioners.

Treaty of 1854.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—In the treaty of 1854, between the United States and Russia, both parties recognized the principle that effects or goods belonging to subjects or citizens of a power or State at war are free from capture and confiscation when found on board neutral vessels, with the exception of articles contraband of war, and that the property of neutrals on board any of the enemy's vessels are not subject to confiscation unless the same be contraband of war. The last treaty between the United States and the Ottoman empire, made in 1862, contains such declared principles.

Rewarding Spotted Tail.

The Times' Washington special says the propriety of rewarding Spotted Tail for his recent services in successfully negotiating with the hostiles has been discussed by Sherman, Sheridan and the Indian commissioner, and probably the President will recommend Congress to authorize the appointment of the distinguished chief to a Colonelcy in the army. Commissioner Smith, Sherman and Sheridan all favor the idea.

BERLIN, April 26.—In the Reichstag to-day, Gen. Von Moltke explained his speech. When he spoke of the compensatory measures which must sooner or later be taken by Germany for the massing of French troops near the frontier he meant measures having no offensive or aggressive character. THE EASTERN WAR.

Montenegro's Charge against the Turks.

RAGUSA, April 26.—The Prince of Montenegro has sent a note to the powers accusing the Turks of having broken off negotiations because Montenegro required that refugees from Herzegovina should be restored to their homes, and the Kutchi prisoners liberated. The Prince declares that alone, without allies, relying on the devotion of his subjects as in former times, and desperately defending his territory against superior forces, he hopes if defeated that Christian Europe will save the women and children.

The Standard of the Prophet.

LONDON, April 26.—A special from Constantinople states that the Sultan, in a proclamation to the troops, declares that in case of need he will join the army with the standard of the Prophet and sacrifice his life for the people.

The Russian Press on the War Measures.

LONDON, April 26.—A Berlin special says the following notable passage occurs in the St. Petersburg Golos, chief Russian diplomatic organ: It remains for our diplomacy to determine whether military operations are to be carried on energetically, and with the full strength of our active forces, or if we are to content ourselves with a predetermined movement for the occupation of certain limited localities.

The Moscow Gazette is in despair at the latter contingency being suggested.

Turkish Ambassador Quits Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 26.—The Turkish charge d'affairs and staff of the embassy, left this morning.

The London Times Thunders against the War.

LONDON, April 26.—The Times, reviewing the argument that the Czar was irresistibly impelled to war by the will of the people, says: This is consistent and intelligible, but it is not the language of a reasonable being. It is the language of Eastern hordes, driven by thirst or starved out of their forests to seek food wherever found. The world will not long permit the earth to be desolated by a struggle begun in an interchange of defiances, and if left to itself pretty sure to last as long as one party has the strength to hurl defiance at the other. General Von Moltke feels as we all feel—how easy it would be to extend the area of the war so as to include the majority of the European powers. We have been told again and again that if peace was once broken, we should enter upon a war of which no one could see the end. The German government knows this, and they were apparently perfectly prepared before, and because preparations in critical times excite counter preparations, and jealousy excites jealousy, until we bring upon us what we prevent by our very anxiety to prevent it; but we do not interpret his speech as meaning anything more than the resolution of a strong man armed to hold his own in peace. It does not deprive us of a hope that the present war will remain localized, but it is sore provocation to despair.

Altars and Fires.

BUCHAREST, April 26.—At the opening of the extraordinary session of the Roumanian Chambers, to-day, the message of Prince Charles was presented, who said our presentation to the Porte and powers to obtain their recognition of the neutrality of Roumania was unsuccessful. Roumania, abandoned by all, must rely on her own resources; we must undergo every sacrifice to prevent Roumania from becoming the theater of war. The Prince will fight, if necessary, for the integrity of the frontier. The Czar has declared that he had no intention of violating our rights. As proof of this, Bucharest will not be occupied by Russians while it preserves the attitude of a neutral.

First Blood for the Turks.

Papers report an engagement on the Asiastic frontier, near Ardahan, and that the Russians were compelled to fall back.

Siege of Constantinople.

It is expected a state of siege will shortly be proclaimed in Constantinople.

Object of the War by Russia.

BRUSSELS, April 26.—La Nord, the Russian organ, states that no disquietude should be caused by the absence in the Czar's manifesto and Gortschakoff's circular of an engagement pledging Russia against the acquisition of territory. Russia naturally cannot bind herself beforehand by a declaration which would deprive her of one of the means of action against an adversary.

Sixty Thousand Russians at Galatz.

LONDON, April 26.—A dispatch from Pascal, Moldavia, Wednesday evening says 15,000 Russians passed through Ungheni, 10,000 through Leova, and 35,000 through Bolgrand. These troops are to effect a junction at Galatz.

Peace to Kalafat.

Osman Pasha has addressed the inhabitants of Kalafat assuring them that they need not fear the Turks, who will occupy the town as friends.

The Next Battle.

A battle may be expected to take place at Tultscha in Dobrutscha, where an attempt of the Russians to cross the Danube may be looked for very shortly.

Russians may have Crossed the Danube.

PESTH, April 26.—A special says it is feared that the Russian column has passed over the Danube near Gladowa.

Occupation of Gladowa by the Turks.

VIENNA, April 26.—An incident is reported from Belgrade which creates great attention here. The Grand Vizier has notified Servia that a Turkish detachment will occupy Gladowa on the approach of the Russians from that side. Abdul Kerim telegraphed to the same effect. The Servian General who commands on the frontier of Servia replied that she will resist by force of arms any attempt at the occupation of Gladowa.

Other National Fleets.

A Madrid dispatch says Spain will send an iron clad squadron to the Levant.

A correspondent at Rome telegraphs that there is great activity in Naples, where the Italian men-of-war are being prepared for sea.

British Naval Preparations.

LONDON, April 26.—The Globe publishes the following telegram received at Plymouth yesterday from the controller of the navy ordering full particulars of all ships in reserve at Davenport which could possibly be made ready for sea by June 1st.

Sultan's Proclamation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 26.—The Sultan has issued a proclamation to the officers and men of the fleet, imperatively commanding them to protect the Musselman population of the Crimean and Caucasian coasts, now groaning under the Russian yoke.

Hobart Pasha not Gone to Odessa.

The Times' special from Pera reports that Hobart Pasha is at Rustchuk, on board an ironclad, and must force his way past Ibrailitz and Galatz in front of the Russians, in order to return to the Black Sea.

English Neutrality.

The Advertiser understands that the declaration of neutrality will be immediately promulgated in the Queen's name, forbidding British subjects from aiding either belligerent.

The British Ministry Sustained.

The Standard reports that leaders of the opposition in the British Parliament declined to accede to the request of several radical members to give vote of a want of confidence in the ministry.

Officers in Servia.

LONDON, April 27.—Foreign officers have received an intimation not to leave Servia until the administration officers, in case of war, have been ordered to place themselves at the disposal of the Servian war minister.

Will Servia Obey.

Abdul Kerim wishes the Servians to occupy all important points on the Danube, regarding Servia as an integral part of the Ottoman empire and bound to support the interests of the Porte.

Occupation of Albania.

Italy intends to occupy Albania as soon as Austria enters Bosnia.

Destroying Bonds.

It is reported that the Turks are making arrangements to destroy the road from Ragusa to Trebigne.

Turks at Dubraun and Trebinge.

The Turkish forces are very weak at the camp of Dubraun. Four hundred men have died within two months.

Trebinge is garrisoned by about 3,000 men. About half the troops are Asiatics.

Moving on Odessa.

A dispatch from Pera says it is reported that a Turkish fleet, under command of Hobart Pasha, left Thursday night to take up a position before Odessa. The telegraph wire at Ibrillbin has been cut by Cossacks, who are there 3,000 to 4,000 strong.

Bombardment of Chefketil.

A dispatch from Pera asserts that the Turkish fleet is bombarding Chefketil.

The Attack on Chetfelk.

LONDON, April 27.—A special from Pera confirms the report that Turkish ships have commenced an attack on Chetfelk.

Russia and Egypt.

A Telegraph Paris correspondent says he has confirmation of the intelligence of the threatening language used by Russia toward the Khedive. Russian reprisals would take the form of a blockade of Alexandria.

Violation of a Rule of Nations.

A Paris dispatch gives the text of another Turkish note protesting against Russia entering Roumania before her declaration of war could reach Turkey as contrary to rules universally observed by civilized States.

War with Persia.

The Russian telegraphic agency says war with Persia is expected in Turkey.

Neutral Navigation of the Danube.

BUCHAREST, April 26.—Hobart Pasha assured the British consul at Galatz that he would not interfere with the neutral navigation of the Danube.

The waters of the Danube are so high that pontooning would be extremely dangerous and almost impossible below Widdin. The Turks have as yet made no attempt to cross.

A tremendous storm of rain and wind raged at Ghlatz last night.

The Sultan's Proclamation.

LONDON, April 26.—The following is the full text of the Sultan's proclamation to his army:

"Russia has declared war. We are forced to take up arms; we have always wished peace, listening to the advice of the powers in this respect, but Russia wants to destroy our independence, as if Russia attacks us, God, who protects right and justice, will grant us victory. Our soldiers will defend with their blood the country gained by their ancestors and with the help of God, maintain the independence of Ottomanli. The nation will protect the wives and children of soldiers should it be necessary. The Sultan will go to the army and raise the standard of the Khalifat and the Sultan. The Sultan is ready to sacrifice his life for the honor and independence of the country.

Inspecting his Army.

The Sultan will inspect the army of the Danube, Saturday, and then go to Kars.

OREGON.

Light frosts in Washington county, but no serious damage.

Mrs. Helen Askins, who formerly lived at Corvallis, died recently in Chicago.

The mill at Lewiston is turning out sixty barrels of flour every twenty-four hours.

The Record urges subscriptions for the road over the Cascade mountains by the Minto Pass, near Mount Jefferson.

The schooner Lizzie, with a load of oysters, went ashore a few days since on South Beach while going out of Yaquina Bay.

Julius A. Stratton has been appointed financial agent of Willamette University. He is one of the university's alumni.

Rev. J. H. Roork, of Salem, lately appointed agent at Klamath reservation, has executed his bond and will start on Monday for his post.

At Alsea the Indians have been having a great feast of rancid blubber for two weeks. A whale ninety feet long came ashore. They cut him up and gorged liberally.

A letter from Burnt river to the Baker City Democrat gives an account of several promising ledges in that locality. Tests have only been partial, but they show good results.

The Corvallis Gazette insists on a railroad to Yaquina, and wants to know what doubting Thomas can question the ability of Benton county to pay $200,000 for it in twenty years.

Mrs. Lucinda Millican, who with her husband and family settled in Yamhill county at a very early day, died on the 24th inst. at her home near Lafayette. She was 69 years of age.

Albany Collegiate Institute, under the control of Prof. L. J. Powell, makes a very good showing. The average number of pupils is over 100, and the tuition fees for three terms amount to $2,2.9 20.

The fellow who fired the jail at Albany to get out of trouble has got deeper in. He is held to answer for arson, and having neither friends nor coin sits behind the bars in the oneliness of desolation.

Never is the Salem Statesman betrayed into publishing an original item of news, or an editorial paragraph on any topic. Ever by no accident does anything ever get into its columns that anybody wants to see.

A petition is circulating in Yamhill asking the county court to buy the Trask river road, leading to Tillamook. The road has a subsidy from the State swamp land fund. The county is urged to buy the road and lease it to responsible parties.

A Yamhill paper says that a company has been organized to build a narrow gauge railroad from navigable water on the Yamhill river to the coast in Tillamook county. They propose to call it the Yamhill and Coast Narrow Gauge Railroad. It is also said there is a prospect of building it to Sheridan this year.

Lewiston Teller: "The extent of this great country is not yet appreciated. The open grass and grain lands between the Cascades and Bitter Root mountains and be ongoing to Washington and Idaho Territories aggregate about 40,000 square miles, or 25,600,000 acres. Full 18,000,000 acres are ready for the plow today and can, without replenishing, be made, with proper culture, to average 25 bushels of wheat per acre annually."

John N. Hamilton, city marshal of Corvallis, collected money belonging to the city and was unable to square up; so, as is alleged, he forged the names of Richard Irvine and Wiley Winkle, farmers of Benton county, for $987, and placed it with his brother-in-law, Wm. Ralston, of Albany, as security to induce Ralston to sign a note with him on which money could be raised at bank. Hamilton has been held to answer for forgery.

Rev. J. G. Mosher, of the United Brethren Church, held a protracted meeting recently near the mouth of Illinois river, in Curry county. It was a locality where many of the young people had never heard preaching, and one old man had not heard a sermon for 41 years. The entire neighborhood was converted except one man, and a church organization of 26 members was established. Another meeting was held at Round Grove, in the same county, and 10 added to the church.

A Washington dispatch says: Butler who is here, is talking openly against the President and his policy. He does not say in so many words that he will oppose the election of Garfield or Foster, but he says it in a way that the men about him cannot fail to understand. It is only within a few days that he has come out fully in opposition to the President. The ugly temper of such Republicans as Butler and Blaine, who live on the old war spirit of the North, makes it clear that if there is a break in the party lines when the House meets, it must be a large one.

A dispatch from Virginia City says on authority of John Mackey, that the Con Virginia dividend for May will be paid if no unforeseen accident occurs. Bullion shipments on April account amount to $507,553, and a heavy shipment will be made to-morrow night.

Odd Fellows' Celebration—Sundry Accidents.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The Odd Fellows' picnic at Belmont to-day was an entire success in point of attendance, six or seven thousand people participating. The affair did not open altogether happily. Owing to the crowd numerous delays occurred, and the last excursion train did not leave the depot till 11:30 o'clock. When near St. Mary's college the train left the track and the engine and some of the cars still remain at the scene of the accident. One man jumped off the train and broke his leg. Arriving at the ground, the first thing on the programme was a grand spelling bee, but while preparing for the contest, the gallery on one side of the pavilion, containing some sixty people, fell, and about a dozen were more or less severely injured. A boy named Healy Davis it is feared, was fatally hurt about the head, and Robert, son of Wm. Stephens, and Mrs. Scott, wife of ex-supervisor, were badly injured. The gallery was merely supported by joists projecting from the wall, and was unsafe at best. The spelling match was broken up by this accident, but otherwise everything passed of satisfactory.

Acquitted.

Ignacs Allen, ex-Secretary of the San Francisco Benevolent Association, on trial for embezzlement in loaning $75 of the society's money to Julius Mailhouse, was acquitted this evening. The jury was out but a short time.

Sanitary Matters.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The board of health met to-day and declared the smallpox no longer epidemic in this city, and also took measures looking to a reduction of expenses of the health office.

Coroner's Inquest.

The coroner to-day held an inquest on the body of the murdered policeman, Coots. The jury found a verdict charging John Rank with murder and James Wilson accessory.

Congressional Party.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—An excursion train of the Southern Pacific, having on board a party of Congressmen, officials and journalists, arrived at Colorado river this morning, being the first through train. Regular passenger trains will begin running on Monday.

Poisoned by Opium.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Peter Obrien, head juiler at the house of correction, died suddenly to-day, and a medical examination showed the probable cause of death to be opium poisoning.

Infected Passengers.

An animated discussion occurred at the meeting of the Board of Health to-day regarding the disposition of passengers by the recently arrived Pacific Mail steamer Alaska from China and Japan with smallpox on board. The quarantine officer and some other members of the board strongly objected to the promptness with which the cabin passengers were allowed to land, and either take up a residence in the city or pursue their journey East before sufficient precautions had been taken to prevent the dissemination of the disease.

An effort will be made to obtain from the government a suitable hulk for quarantine purposes, and the establishment of a quarantine station on Angel Island. The management of the case of the Alaska has occasioned much unfavorable comment, public and private.

Stock Exchange Rules.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Wednesday, in committee of the whole, the Pacific Stock Exchange adopted the report of the committee on revision of the constitution with some amendments. The revision embodies many new features and additional regulations. Several of the amendments are of interest to the public who transact business with the Exchange. Clients are placed upon equal footing with members of the Exchange in the settlement of claims of suspended or bankrupt brokers; all clearing alike in the distribution of assets. The question of upon whom the responsibility of the possession of fraudulent stocks rests is settled to be on the broker from whom they are received, and he can in turn recover from the one from whom the fraudulent certificates were obtained and so on retrogressively; provided that claim be made within thirty days after receipt of stock. After that time the responsibility of the Exchange in the premises ceases, and the holder must trace his remedy at law.

Fires.

About 10½ o'clock last night a fire broke out in the Pacific oil and lead works on King street between Second and Third; damage estimated at $2,000.

At 11 o'clock a fire broke out in the three story frame house at 617 and 619 Brannan street near Sixth, owned and occupied by Herman Granz as a furniture factory. The rear and upper part of the building and contents were destroyed; loss estimated at about $8,000.

California Greenbackers.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The National Currency Reform party of California has been holding a meeting at Oakland the last two days for the purpose of framing a constitution. To-day they decided upon its provisions, the principal of which are the issue of paper currency to the people direct on security of United States bonds, bullion or improved real estate, to half its market value, the currency to bear interest at three per cent. per annum, and be not a promise to pay, but a bill received for all purposes, including duties, etc. The constitution also calls for universal suffrage, and deals at length with economic questions.

Convicted of Arson.

VALLEJO, April 27.—The jury in the case of F. J. Schuster, tried for setting the Golden Eagle hotel at Vallejo on fire in February last, brought in a verdict of guilty of arson in the first degree, this morning, after having been out two and a half hours.

Attempt at Suicide.

SAN JOSE, April 26.—A man who is a stranger in the city, and has been here only five or six days, was found in his room at Malatesta's European hotel, on Market street, suffering from a bullet wound in the head over the right eye. He was alive when found and still held the pistol in his hand. He asked for a priest and one attended him, after which he was taken to the hospital. He refuses to give his name. He was well dressed, and is believed to be an Irishman; tall, slender built, sandy complexion, between 40 and 45 years old. The pistol was an old fashioned derringer. It is reported that loss in stocks was the trouble. He cannot recover.

LATER.—The man is supposed to be John M. Taylor of 307 California street, as a slip leaf on a copy of the Pacific Cyclopaedia has what looks like the above in pencil, but efforts were made by him to obliterate it. It is said he took and its contents were his reason for the act.

Foretold his Murder.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, April 26.—Chas. Ottens, proprietor of the Small Hotel, in this city, known as Our House, was found murdered in his house this morning. He was a middle aged German, and lived alone. Robbery was evidently the intention of the perpetrator of the crime, as his money pouch was cut open and thrown on the floor by the body. No certain clue to the murderer, although suspicion points strongly to a young man who cannot be found at present. Mr. Ottens told many persons in the last few days that he would be murdered in less than a week, and that this young man would do it.

Trial of an Official.

SALINAS, April 27.—The trial of ex-Deputy Tax Collector Rumsey for embezzlement was recalled in the county court here this morning. Rumsey was on the witness stand when court adjourned last evening and was the first witness this morning. He testified that Castro had authorized him to use $10, $15 or $20 of the public money if he wanted to every month with the understanding that he (Rumsey) should replace it when needed to make settlements with the treasurer; he did not let Parker have five thousand dollars or any other sum to send to San Francisco to purchase silver; said that he was some money behind on gambling; did not remember how much.

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 28, 1877

RECIPROCITY THAT DOES NOT RECIPROCATE.

In the reciprocity treaty with the Sandwich Islands there was a job which is bearing the fruit its authors intended. It is discreditable to the intelligence of our country that such a treaty was enacted; or rather it would be so if the intelligence of the country had had anything to do with it. But as it was got through the Senate as a job in favor of interested parties, the responsibility cannot be laid at the door of the American people. Hawaiian journals are boasting of the good results to the business of the Islands, accruing from the treaty; more sugar is now exported than ever before, and the increase for the present year over last year's crop is expected to be several thousand tons. New plantations are being started, and the business interests of the Islands have been quickened to new activity. This is one side of the so-called reciprocity treaty. The other presents a different aspect. The benefits accrue solely to planters at the Islands and to a sugar monopoly at San Francisco, and this combination is enabled by the act of the American Senate to make vast sums of money at the expense of the people of our Pacific States.

Since the treaty went into operation, island sugars in our market have been uniformly higher than before. Free sugar ever since has cost the people of Oregon from one to two cents a pound more than sugar did formerly that paid the duty. Not only this, but the treasury of the United States loses the revenue paid by a duty averaging three cents a pound. On importations from the Islands the present year this would bring nearly or quite a million dollars. This, with the increased cost of the article to consumers, all goes into the pockets of a monopoly of sugar refiners at San Francisco, leagued with two or three houses at the Islands, through whom crops are handled. At this port the receipts from customs have been reduced one-half in consequence of the treaty: through two Portland houses alone, duties on Hawaiian products amounting to nearly one hundred thousand dollars were paid annually into the treasury. This sum the government loses, while the people of Oregon pay annually many thousand dollars more for the same quantity of sugar than they did before. In California the success of the job is proportionately greater. It is but just, however, to say that the result was foreseen and predicted by men who opposed the treaty. Senator Booth foretold just what the consequences would be and exposed the job in them. A Senator from Oregon was one of the principal supporters of the treaty. Since it went into effect it has been extremely difficult for Portland merchants to obtain cargoes at the Islands. They are unable to get a keg of sugar from that source without consent of the parties in whose interest this treaty was enacted. Our market often has been quite bare of these sugars, since the refiners at San Francisco have control in their own hands. On our side there is no advantage whatever, nothing to compensate for the benefits granted to those who got the treaty through. The independent trade of Oregon with the Islands has been practically annihilated, our merchants are losers, consumers are taxed for the benefit of a San Francisco sugar ring and island planters, and the government loses a large revenue. To Senator Mitchell may be commended a study of the results of this statesmanship. Such study will show in a striking way how reciprocity, which under certain circumstances may be a very good thing, doesn't in the present case reciprocate at all. It will show also that the parties from San Francisco and Honolulu who beseiged the Senate so importunately to get this treaty knew what they were about. They were planting influence where it would do most good.

ABOUT NEWSPAPERS.

It is asserted that the Times is now the most profitable paper published in New York, with the single exception of the Herald. In value as a property it holds corresponding rank. George Jones, principal owner of the Times, recently stated that the receipts of the paper for 1876 were $320,000; expenses of all descriptions, $660,000; net profits, $154,000. The paper bill was $300,000, which at rates paid for paper in New York, would buy enough and give a circulation of about 70,000 for each and every day in the year. Cost of composition is only about half as much as the bills for paper, a striking fact which newspaper men can comprehend. The Times uses a Walter press which rolls off and folds huge editions printed on both sides, at the rate, when driven, of thirty thousand an hour.

The income of the New York Herald is incredible, being more than double that of the Times. The profits are correspondingly large. Often sixty, and sometimes eighty compact columns of advertisements appear in a single issue, charged for each insertion at the average rate of a dollar a line. Not a line or letter of large or displayed type is admitted into the Herald's advertisements. Everything is compressed within smallest space, and if a customer wants to make a display and spread out his advertisement, it must be done with the small letter ordinarily used. But great as is the Herald's advertising, it is surpassed by that of the London Times. No American newspaper has an income that approaches the income of the Times, though the London Telegraph has a circulation largely exceeding that of its powerful neighbor.

In point of enterprise, in fulness and variety of news, and in extent of circulation, the papers of Chicago are not behind those of New York; but they have not an equal income from advertisers. In the free use of the telegraph the Chicago Times is ahead of any newspaper in the world. Everything in the line of news it always has with greatest amplitude and detail. The Tribune, while inferior to the Times in this feature, is nevertheless an immense newspaper, is better written than the Times, and is much superior to it in candor, stability and other of the better qualities of journalism. The usual daily circulation of the Tribune is about 40,000 and upward. The Times is supposed to have somewhat more. On important occasions each has printed and sold above 75,000. St. Louis has no papers that equal the enterprise and circulation of the Tribune and Times of Chicago. The Republican maintains its place at the head of the St. Louis press, though the Globe-Democrat has been making great efforts to achieve a leading position. As an instance of enterprise it may be mentioned that it was half past one o'clock in the morning when the fire in the Southern Hotel was discovered, and by five the Globe-Democrat was out with a striking description of the great calamity, filling eight columns in small type. It also had a diagram of the building, with the names of most of the guests and many who perished. This was much faster work than that of the New York papers with the report of the fire at the Brooklyn Theater. Although this disaster occurred long before midnight, the New York papers next morning had no notice of it, and the Chicago press was ahead of them with the report.

Few enterprises are more profitable than a large paying newspaper. But when a paper loses money, nothing else loses it so fast. It is like pouring money into cavernous depths. How frequently the effort to make a newspaper go has mocked and defeated the ambition that has ventured money in this way, there needs no attempt to tell. It has often come to proof that a paper cannot be built up with money. Like a successful government, it must grow.

It is established by the testimony before the coroner at St Louis that the fire in the Southern Hotel was discovered full half an hour before the alarm was given to the sleeping inmates. The time was wasted in abortive efforts to extinguish the fire. Had the alarm been given at once every person in the building could easily have escaped. The calamity in this case was due to the possession of special apparatus for extinguishing fires. Had there been none, the people would have been aroused quickly and all saved. But this was postponed by vain efforts to control the fire with the hotel apparatus, till it was too late to save the inmates. Proper care would have prevented the loss of a single life. The St. Louis Journal severely denounces the management of the hotel.

A few days ago several gentlemen called at the navy department to oppose an appointment which they had learned was about to be made. They were asked to give their reasons, when they stated that the person was a Democrat. Secretary Thompson inquired if there were any charges against him touching his honesty and capability. He was answered there were none. "Then," said the new head of the department, "his political views are none of my business and I shall not consider them." The gentlemen departed under a belief that "the party" was sold out and ruined. Think of a rule like this to take the place of the vigorous Republican discipline that Oregon has known.

Wouldn't the extremists of Democracy, who have no thought that rises above partisan considerations, be delighted if the old trouble in regard to the South could be kept open! If they could only get this matter continued to the next elections how easily they would walk over the course, sure enough. But their adversaries decline to give them this advantage, and they are unhappy. Now comes the Salem Mercury with an attack on President Hayes because he does not comply with Packard's demand to be "recognized" and sustained as Governor of Louisiana. Good Mercury, all Democrats who take your position are suspected as Greeks bringing gifts.

There are fine proceedings in South Carolina. Read the report of proceedings in the legislature. The Hampton people who pledged themselves so solemnly to guard everybody's political rights have turned members out of the legislature by wholesale who had an average of 6,500 majority. You can trust the Southern Democrat—to go the whole figure every time. The new phase that things have taken will probably make Chamberlain happy and persuade him that he is vindicated.

Russia clearly does not believe she has anything to fear from Germany. A Russian newspaper argues that Austrian Germany will yet be consolidated with the German empire, and that the rulers of Germany will not bar the way to Constantinople to any one who lets them take Vienna. German unity, it further declares, must lead to Slavic unity, and the doctrine of nationalities will establish itself on the map of Europe.

In order to correct a typographical error that occurred in Mr. Watkinds' reply to Mr. Burch, in the last paragraph of the first column, we reprint a sentence, correction made:

It will not do, however, to have twelve persons on the pay roll besides officers when six are sufficient; nor will it do to purchase 50,000 feet of lumber to erect a furniture factory which will prove a failure and will be a needless expense to the State.

The wheat bonanza is now just the biggest thing going. Several Oregon shippers are in great luck. The rise is equal to a gain of twenty or twenty-five dollars a ton; and you can see yourself how nice a thing it is to have a few thousand tons on the way out.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 28, 1877

CITY.

DIED IN PRISON.—A colored man named Robert Small, who, for several years past, has been employed in this city as a boot black and "general useful," died suddenly in the county jail about 11 o'clock Thursday night. He was arrested on the 19th inst., charged with having disposed of liquor to an Indian, and being able to furnish the requisite bonds, was committed to the county jail. Thursday forenoon Small was arraigned in U. S. District Court and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge. He was remanded to jail. He appeared quite well, ate a hearty supper Thursday evening and was soon after shut up in his cell. About 10 o'clock Jailer Morrill was awakened by groans proceeding from the cell where Small was confined. He proceeded to his bedside and found him lying on his back in the bed and appeared to be suffering great pain. Mr. Morrill caused him to be removed out into the hall. Soon after Small seemed to grow easier, but shortly he began to sink and breathed his last without pain or the slightest struggle. There being something rather suspicious about the cause of Small's death, Coroner DeLin was notified. That official proceeded yesterday morning to summon the following jurors: F. E. Hodgkins, A. J. Hyant, H. L. Darr, J. A. Carr, H. B. Oatman and C. E. Dubois, and repaired without delay to the scene. Several witnesses were examined, among whom were Drs. Strong and Cardwell. From the testimony of these medical gentlemen it appears that deceased had been afflicted for some time with valvular disease of the heart, and that his sudden death was doubtless attributable to that. After careful investigation of the matter, the jury rendered a verdict of death from natural causes. Deceased was about forty years of age. He was born a slave in South Carolina and remained in servitude until the occupancy of Charleston by the U. S. troops during the civil war. He came to this city about four years ago on a sailing vessel.

MR. PIERCE'S RESIGNATION.—The resignation of Rev. D. J. Pierce, of the Baptist church, who was compelled to leave by ill health, was accepted by the church on Thursday evening, and he will preach his farewell sermon to the church tomorrow morning. For over a year he has been suffering from ministers' sore throat, aggravated by periodic prostration from malarious influences. His people gave him a vacation of five months last summer, kindly continuing his salary, and in October he returned greatly improved, but unable to speak more than once per day. Through the constant and thorough care of an able physician, his throat has steadily improved until a serious cough has wholly ceased, speaking has ceased to be painful, and hopes of a complete recovery entertained. But with the return of the malarious season, the old symptoms of weakness and bilious difficulty returned, and he became convinced that the only safety lies in retreat. He will sell his furniture next week and leave by the steamer for Oakland, California, where he will remain for a short time, having effected an exchange with the pastor, Rev. B. S. McLafferty, who will occupy the Portland pulpit for a few Sabbaths, beginning May 13th. Mr. Pierce expects to spend the summer in the Rocky mountains. He is a most intense and indefatigable student and an earnest Christian worker. During his adjourn among us Mr. Pierce has won a host of friends by his sterling qualities of heart, genial manners and by his exemplary deportment as a minister and a Christian gentleman. Wherever he may go, and wherever his future lot may be cast, he and his most estimable wife will bear with them the kindest wishes of very many warm friends.

AN INTREPID YOUNG WOMAN.—Some months ago we published an account in the OREGONIAN of a remarkably daring adventure of a young woman named Melissa Wilson, residing near Sheridan, Yamhill county. This young heroine shot and killed a large cougar which had been making himself quite familiar with some of her father's hogs. It seems that Miss Wilson has again proved herself equal to the proud title of a brave and true hearted frontiers-woman. A correspondent, writing from Sheridan under date of April 26th, says: "Miss Melissa Wilson, of panther notoriety, has again made herself famous by killing another of these animals. Yesterday morning she was out looking for a cow, and found where a panther or bear had killed a large sheep belonging to her father. The animal had dragged it some 300 yards up a mountain. Melissa returned home and took her small rifle and her father's dogs. She then went back to the place where the sheep had been killed and put the dogs on the track. They soon treed a large panther up a lofty fir tree, when this intrepid young lady put a bullet right between its eyes, bringing him down dead at the first shot." We have always said it, and now we reiterate the statement: "Yamhill against the world."

HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL.—Under the appropriate heading in this issue will be found the notice of the wedding in East Portland on Thursday evening last, of Mr. Wm. Schmeer and Miss Viola Burke. Under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Boeschen the occasion was rendered one of unusual interest and social enjoyment. Among the many items which contributed so much to make the occasion one long to be remembered, was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Schmeer, by the Oregon Furniture Company, of a very handsome and valuable silver set and cutlery. The beautiful casters, table and tea spoons, knives and forks, were all of the best manufacture and constituted a very appropriate and well deserved tribute to the worth and valuable services of Mr. Schmeer, who has been in the employ of the Oregon Furniture Company since its first organization. We notice the transaction as a compliment alike to the good taste and generosity of the company, and to the activity and fidelity of Mr. Schmeer as an employe of that establishment.

A VERY "SAYD" AFFAIR.—Sayd, of the Reporter gets off another column about the McMinnville steamboat, and the report that it was drawn off, but Sayd, with a lack of candor that is no credit to him, still insists in substance, in his comments that the OREGONIAN originated the report to injure the Yamhill trade, when he knows well enough that the report was given to us as a positive and authoritative statement by the boat's owners, (one of whom brought it to our office) who might be supposed naturally to know what they were talking about. But Sayd, having started out to do a small thing, plainly wants to stick to it. Does a newspaper usually look for "better authority" regarding the movements of a steamboat than is furnished by its recognized agent? Say, Sayd!

DISCHARGED.—A few days ago Hugh McLaughlin was arrested on a charge of vagrancy. He furnished the required bonds and was released from custody. The case was continued from day to day, and yesterday the defendant was discharged, and consequently exonerated from further liability. It seems that the city was unable to make out a case against the defendant, as a number of witnesses were ready to swear that McLaughlin, at the time of the arrest, was seeking employment, and that a short time previous he had been engaged at work. It being patent that the charges could not be sustained, the case was dismissed.

LATE MR. VERDIER.—Mr. Verdier, of whose sudden and violent death mention is made by our regular Salem correspondent, was formerly a resident of this city. He was engaged for several years in the spice and coffee business under the firm name of Verdier & Tournel, on Washington street. A few years ago his partner, Mr. Tournel, became insane and had to be committed to the asylum. Subsequently he was taken sick and died at that institution. Mr. Verdier was an honest, hard-working man, and his awful death will be sincerely regretted by many persons in Portland and elsewhere.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING.—At the anniversary meeting of the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church of Portland (incorporated in the State archives) the following persons were elected trustees: Charley Nelson, in-stead of Jas. Madsen; Carl Correl, instead of Neils Ellefsen. The following were re-elected: John Nelsen, Iver Hansen and John Gustavson.

LETTER LIST.—The following letters remain uncalled for at the express office: Henry Keith, Frank Lyster, Thomas McDonald, C. P. Rankin, Leon Samwells, Frank R. Sweeny.

A SHOWMAN IN TROUBLE.—Mons. Leotard, whose daring exploits on the trapeze in the open air last Thursday evening caused such a great sensation, is an acrobat and magician of considerable note, but his poverty, caused by years of sickness, has prevented him from making himself known to this community. Three years ago he fell a distance of 45 feet while walking a tight rope in the open air in Salt Lake City. His wife is also a trapeze performer and his family of children, whom he wishes to bring here as soon as able, are reputed to be startling performers.

LONG SERVICE.—Capt. C. F. Jones has had control of the railroad ferry since it was launched, some six years ago, and has continued at his post daily ever since. He resides some two and a half miles east of the railroad station, and has made it a practice to walk home nightly, and is always on duty in the morning. We envy the captain, knowing that he has the finest farm on the east side, a portion of the products of which he sends to market.

REDUCED PRICES.—To meet the general request of the public, the management of the De Murska opera company has reduced the prices as follows: A reserved seat for the two last grand opera nights on Saturday, April 28th, and Tuesday, May 1st, $2. A reserved seat for a single opera night, $1 25. General admission—Dress circle and parquet, $1; gallery, 50 cents. Matinee prices—Admission 50 cents, reserved seats 75 cents.

OLYMPIC CLUB.—We looked into this gymnasium of this club last evening and were agreeably surprised to observe a large attendance of members, a fine set of young men, attired in a manner fitted for such an occasion. All seemed to take an active interest. Mr. Miller, the instructor, desires the attendance of parents with boys varying from 10 to 16 years of age between 4 and 6 P. M. this afternoon.

COMMITTEES TO MEET.—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of all the committees which have been appointed to make arrangements for celebrating Tammany Day by the several tribes of the Improved Order of Red Men of this city. The meeting will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Wigwam.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—One of the best programmes which has yet been offered by the De Murska operatic company, was rendered last evening splendidly. Among the real gems of the evening we cannot forbear enumerating the solo by Sig. L. Formilli, grand aria by Mlle Beckmann, Romances "My Angel" by Theo. Habelmann, rendered most felicitously, and received with great warmth, "Carnival of Venice," by the "Queen of Song," piano solo "Prayer," by that finished artist, Mr. John Hill, grand trio from "Belisario," by Mme De Murska, Messrs. Habelmann, Lafontaine and Formilli. The parting scene between Lucia and Egardo was touchingly beautiful. This scene was sung with great feeling and sweetness, and acted with true artistic tenderness. Mr. Habelmann, in the solo in the graveyard, gave the most convincing proof of his vocal powers and artistic merits as a most finished actor.

A GREAT BILL FOR TO NIGHT.—To night will be offered the greatest attractions of the operatic season. It should fill the house from pit to dome. Il Trovatore, familiar to all lovers of music, will be given complete. Not only will the cast be superior to anything ever before seen here, but in fact equal to the best given in San Francisco, barring the orchestral accompaniment, but we shall at least have a grand chorus in the persons of the Turnlind Turn Verein singing section, who have generously volunteered, and will give the Anvil and Miserere chorus. Scenes from this opera have often been given here by many artists of repute, but to-night we shall have it complete, and the audience, which we are sure will be very large, will have an opportunity to judge for themselves as to the respective renditions. The representation to night will undoubtedly be very effective, and will comprise a truly remarkable cast, viz: Leonore, Madame Ilma De Murska; Manrico, Mr. Theodore Habelmann; Azucena, M'lle Louise Beckman; Count de Luna, Mr. F. Lafontaine; Ferrando, Signor Lorenzo Formilli; Ruiz, Signor Scanzoni. Seats can be secured as early as 8 o'clock this morning. A grand matinee entertainment is also promised for to day.

THE LAST NIGHT.—To-night Prof. Taylor will appear for the last time at Oro Fino Theater, on which occasion the usual number of presents will be given away. The leading presents to night will be a handsome, splendid black walnut chamber set. This evening, by special request, Prof. Taylor will perform one of the greatest feats known to the magic art—The Great Turkish Box Mystery; also the Davenport Bros' rope tying and sack feat. Otherwise there will be an entire change of programme. This afternoon a grand matinee performance will be given at 2 o'clock for the special benefit of the children and families, on which occasion Prof. Taylor has selected one of his most pleasing programmes—such as cannot fail to be appreciated by the little folks. Last evening there was present a large and well pleased audience. The leading present last evening—a fine $75 Florence sewing machine—was drawn by Mr. L. B. Phillips. This will close one of the most successful seasons of the magic art ever given in Portland. The Professor will open at Reed's Opera House, Salem, next Monday evening and continue for four nights. Prof. Taylor, during his brief stay, has made many warm friends, the best wishes of whom he will carry hence with him.

"THE THRONE OF THE MIND."—This is the theme to which Dr. Paul M. Brenan will devote his oratorical powers on Tuesday night, May 1, at Masonic Hall. This lecture has been so highly spoken of by the daily papers of California and Washington Territory that it is only necessary for us to make mention of this fact to insure a cordial reception of the Doctor on the occasion of his first effort in Portland. Of this far famed discourse the Sacramento Union says: "Dr. Brenan's lecture on 'The Throne of the Mind' called out a full house last evening. He treats the subject from a scientific standpoint; is both practical and amusing. His lectures in this State and Nevada, as well as in the Eastern States, are spoken of in the highest praise as uniformly successful. The subjects therein treated are of the greatest interest to humanity in general, and those who neglect to hear him will miss a rare treat." Dr. Brenan will to-day open two offices—one at the Clarendon Hotel and one in the brick block on the southeast corner of Washington and Front streets, where he can be consulted free of charge. The office hours to be devoted to each office will be announced in our next issue. The lecture on Tuesday night is free to all. Lecture to commence at 8 o'clock, sharp.

CATARRH.

A Case of Six Years' Standing, accompanied by distressing symptoms, cured by the use of two bottles of

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:

Gentlemen—Please allow me to testify to the great merits of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. For six years I have suffered greatly, particularly while troubled with a cold. The accumulation of mucus in my head and throat kept me constantly hawking and spitting, rendering my presence in company extremely embarrassing to myself and friends. Six months ago I was induced to try SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. After using two bottles I find myself nearly, if not quite, permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.

Respectfully yours, WM. W. ARMSTRONG, December 25, 1874. 159 Harrison Av., Boston.

CATARRH.

Helped her the most of any Medicine she ever used.

SIR: Enclosed please find three dollars, for which send me three bottles of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. The last helped me the most of any medicine I ever used. Yours in respect,

July 5, 1875. MRS. LAURA S. CHASE, Hardwick, Mass.

CATARRH.

From George W. Shattuck, Esq., late Foreign Entry Clerk, Boston Custom House.

Gentlemen—I have been troubled with Catarrh for several years, but by the use of your remedy it has been greatly relieved. This summer I have been entirely free from it. I make use of it in my family for colds in the head and find it an effectual remedy. I can confidently recommend it to all who are similarly afflicted. Very truly yours,

October 26, 1874. GEO. W. SHATTUCK.

PERSEVERE

In the use of this remedy until cured. It contains the great healing elements of plants in their essential form as obtained by distillation.

Catarrh, in its extent and destructive force, stands next to consumption, and is closely allied to it; for in certain constitutions the transition from one to the other is only a question of time. It is therefore a singular thing that those afflicted with it should not make it the object of their lives to rid themselves of it. A single bottle of any remedy cannot, in the chronic stage, effect a cure, nor even bring the system under its influence fully. In many such cases the bones and cartilage of the nose are eaten away, the organs of hearing, of smell and of tasting so affected as to be rendered useless, the uvula so elongated and inflamed as to produce a constant and distressing cough. The return to health must necessarily be slow, under the most favorable circumstances, when so seriously afflicted; but as the evidence of its great value daily comes to hand, we become more satisfied that there does not exist a case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by a judicious and persistent use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. The relief in every case obtained from the first dose is an indication of what it will do when the system is brought constitutionally under its influence.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE is sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States. Price, $1.

Chronic Pleurisy Cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:

Gentlemen—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physicians Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, the physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately; and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfectease and comfort, whereas before the application of your invaluable plaster I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully,

MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN. Orland, Me., April 21, 1876.

THE UNNOTICED BOUND

When, passing southward, I may cross the line
Between the Arctic and Atlantic oceans,
I may not tell—by any test of mine,
By any startling signs, or strange commotions
Across my track.

But if the days grow sweeter, one by one,
And e'en the icebergs melt their hardened faces;
And sailors linger basking in the sun,
I know I must have made the change of places
Some distance back!

When, answering timidly the Master's call,
I paused at the burning of life in coming to Him;
When in my love for Him I gave up all—
The very moment when I thought I knew Him,
I cannot tell!

But as increasingly I feel His love—
As this cold heart is melted to o'erflowing—
As now so dear the light comes from above,
I wonder at the change—and move on, knowing,
That all is well!

A GEORGIA FARMER'S PIANO.

A seedy looking individual, evidently a farmer, walked into the auction house of Joyner & Ellis, a day or two since, and going up to Mr. Ellis, said, very confidentially, "Mister, I'd like to get you to se I'n piano for me to-day."

"Certainly, sir; where is the instrument?"

"Out here in my cart."

Mr. Ellis directed two or three negroes to assist in getting out the big music box, but the rustic told him not "to flutter," and going out for a minute, returned with a queer looking box in his arms, which he sat down with a look of triumph, and exclaimed: "Here she is!"

And there it was, a real piano, about as big as an ordinary cracker box, on such legs as usually support a towel rack. It had five octaves of the smallest ivory keys. Its general build was so unique and fanciful that, when shut, nobody could tell what the curious box contained. It was made, so said a little ivory plate, in London in 1802. The keys had a sharp, tinkling sound, but the scale ran perfectly. The owner said he had had it for a long time, and when first bought it had cost a large sum; but times had got so hard that all the fancy fixtures had to go.

The piano was at once put up, and its possessor watched the fate of his property with evident anxiety. Bidding was dull and nobody appreciated the machine. It lagged on, and when a fellow got it for $1 25 there was a sort of titter in the crowd. The old man looked disappointed as he took the pittance his treasure had brought.—Atlanta Constitution.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Kentucky's favorite son—Watt-er-son!

A lovesick girl who had married against her father's wishes, came back after the first conjugal tiff. "Kill the prodigal," exclaimed the father, "the calf has returned."

A Chicago girl, who claims to have proved it by experiment, says that by putting a lover in the light of a blue-glass window, he can be made to propose at one sitting.

The question arising in a Sunday school as to why God created all the animals before man, a little boy said: "I know; it's because he didn't want the man hanging around while he was making 'em."

Vermont personel: If the young man who sat in the chair where a lady had left a dish of maple sugar to cool at the festival the other evening, will return the saucer, he will save himself further interruption.

"What would you do if mamma should die?" she pathetically asked of her three-year-old daughter. "I don't know," remarked the infant, with downcast eyes and a melancholy voice, "I thpose I should have to thpank myself!"

A Kansas farmer purchased a revolver for his wife, and insisted on target practice; so that she could defend her house in case of his absence. After the bullet had been dug out of his leg and the cow buried, he said he guessed that she'd do better with an axe.

"William," observed a Milwaukee woman to her husband, "Mrs. Holcomb feels pretty bad, you know, since the loss of her child, and I wish you would drop over there and see her. You might say that all flesh is grass; that we've all got to go the same way, and see if she is going to use her dripping pan this afternoon."
